

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROGRAM TUITION AND FEES

Tuition and Fees:

COHORTS STARTING IN 2011

Application Fee	$50
Tuition Deposit	$550
- Due after acceptance into the program
Comprehensive Fee	$50/year
Year 1 Program Tuition	$6000
Year 2 Program Tuition	$5000
Year 3 Program Tuition	$4000
Final Doctoral Project Advisory Fee.....	$1000
-Due at the beginning of the third year or upon submission of the Proposal
Program Extension Annual Fee	$1000
- Due upon the beginning of the fifth year of studies, if needed

Accreditation:

ACCREDITATION and AFFILIATION

Alliance Theological Seminary is accredited with The Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and, as a division of Nyack College, by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools.

ATS operates as a graduate school of Nyack College under the charter of Nyack College granted by the Board of Regents of the State Education Department of the University of the State of New York.

The U.S. Department of Justice lists the seminary for training of international students. Also, the State Education Department approves ATS for training of veterans under Public Laws 530 and 894.

ATS is also a member of the Institute of Theological Studies, which provides independent study courses applicable towards degree study.

Membership in:

- American Theological Library Association (ATLA)
- Southeastern New York Regional Library Council (SENYLRC)
- New York Area Theological Library Association (NYATLA)
- Westchester Academic Library Directors Organization (WALDO)

Demographics of Alliance Theological Seminary (2010):

Enrolled: 800

Master of Divinity students: 61%

Male/female percentage: 59% male, 46% female

Black/African American - 31%; Asian - 17%; Caucasian - 12%; Hispanic - 26%; Others and undesignated-14%.

C&MA denominational identification: 15%